Welcome to January's Inciter Magazine.

Happy new year to you dear reader.

This year we will strive to travel and find delicious women.

If you don't like something in 2019, forgive us ... In 2020 we will have much better women.

We plan to eliminate models with clothes, to turn everything into subtle and elegant nudes.

Is this ok for you?

Stay in 2020 with Inciter Magazine.

At your service.

We are preparing more delicious things for your delight.

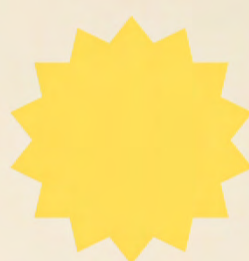

At your service.

Super sports, and their hidden limbs

Ferrari, Lamborghini, Maserati, Aston Martin. Bugatti, and others... There is a world to discover, a world full of quality, design, harmony, mega power engines, and above all ingenuity and creativity.

That's why our car fans have made a top 5 of the super cars you don't know:

FIVE: Devel Sixteen

Devel Motors in 2013, this super car, thanks to its 5,007 HP of power, extracted from a V16 engine, with 12.3 liters of displacement and four turbochargers. Totally irrational figures, which would allow it to accelerate from 0 to 100 in less than 2.0 seconds and exceed 500 km/h.

FOUR: Aria FXE

Aria FXE, s that has a 6.2-liter V8 engine that moves the rear axle, combined with two electric motors, to move the front axle. All managed through a sequential automatic gearbox, with eight ratios. According to the manufacturer, the FXE could reach 60 mph (96 km/h) in 2.7 seconds and reach a top speed of 338 km/h.

TREE: Zenvo TS1 GT

The danes Zendo uses a V8 twin-turbo engine, with 5.8 liters of displacement, which develops a power of 1.163 bhp and a torque of 1.111 Nm at 7.700 laps, and the TSRSport-7 automatic gearbox, with seven speeds. Reaching a top speed of 375 km/h, goes from 0 to 100 in just 2.8 seconds. For only €1,150,000.

TWO: Vencer Sarthe

The Dutch manufacturer Vencer created the Sarthe began its journey in 2012 and, after the good reviews received in the Top Marques of the same year, it began to be produced in 2015.6.3 V8 supercharged engine, from General Motors (prepared by Hennessey), delivers more than 620 hp, reaches 338 km/h and accelerates from 0 to 100 in 3.6 seconds. For only €270,000.

ONE: Aspark Owl

From Japan the Aspark Owl, which is built entirely in carbon fiber, allowing it to announce a weight of just 860 kilos. In addition, thanks to the use of four electric motors, with a power of 435 HP and a torque of 800 Nm, it is capable of accelerating from 0 to 100 km/h in 2.0 seconds. Only 50 copies of this jewel are created at a cost of US$3,500,000. Wow, I think we can create a good car from the comfort of our home, remember that everything starts with an idea and a plan.

This model experienced amateur nudity, however she preferred not to show her face.

HOW TO LAST LONGER IV.

PRESSURE TONGUE

This is the fourth delivery that our team of doctors and sex experts have created.

Today we bring a trick from India, based on the ancient Prana. The technique is very simple, you must before you call to orgasm is very strong, you must complement the breath, and the strength of your pelvic floor, with a tongue game that I will describe below:

There are two ways to do it, you can try the one that best convinces you, both with your mouth closed, in one you simply throw the tip of your tongue towards the back of your palate with a lot of force. In the other technique you simply squeeze the back of your tongue against your palate.

This generates that the concentration of the orgasm is directed to this effort and you can last longer in the sex. I hope these tips will make you a real sex machine.

Sex toy for her

In previous editions we have talked about artificial intelligence and the hyper reality of new male sex toys. One of our readers has written directly, requesting information about satisfaction toys for women. For her, and all those interested we have done this research.

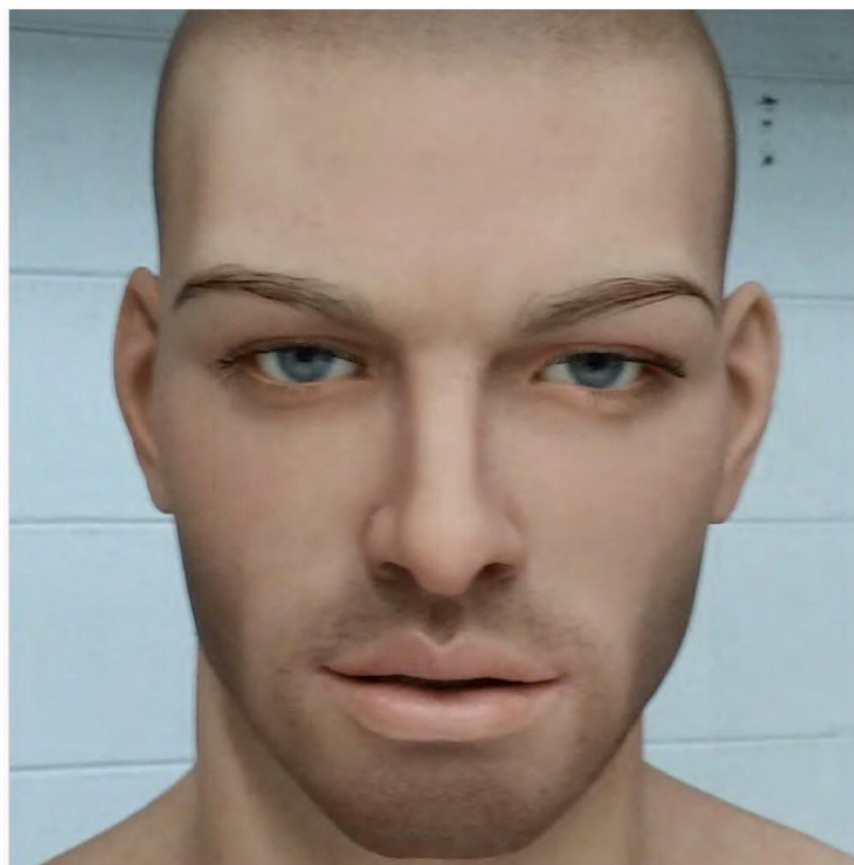

Much has been said about the constant innovation of the vibrator, including, I wrote for Inciter Magazine, a trivial document about how the vibrator was born.

That's why it's not a topic to discuss in this issue, and we're going to limit ourselves to talking about the new sex dolls, which unlike the vibrator, are in a nascent cycle. Gabriel has arrived, designed by multiple professionals, including industrial engineers and sexologists, this first sex doll, with features of hyper-realism, with human textures that mimic the veins of the penis, and has geometrically attractive features for women.

The Sinthetics Company, in Los Angeles CA, makes models on demand, where you can imitate (in a limited way) the features of some celebrities, and details such as remove or put hair, get a tan, create smiles, among other reality factors that pretend to imitate a human.

However, some companies in Asia offer some less sophisticated models, which will send discreetly to the door of your home.

Prices start at $799, and there is no limit, everything is linked to personalized details.

Hot Stories: Mature women .

LHi I'm Kike, I'm 22 years old, and I confess that I'm addicted to sex with mature women.

In my culture good hunters go for the youngest and most tender prey, which makes it strange that a young man likes older women. So this was a discovery for me.

I remember one day a friend of my mother joked about changing her clothes in front of me, instinctively I told her that there was no problem, that she could change in front of me, apparently she enjoyed me seeing her, while this scene has been a motive for my masturbations in recent years. I can say that my sexual appetite for mature women was born from what I previously narrated, however it was the door to what I really like, knowing that most of them are not very enjoyed by their husbands, and that really, there are many deceived, divorced, and with low self-esteem, which makes their sexual appetite is really broad, and can really ride on the good expression of sexual creativity. However, society has many obstacles to older women appearing with younger men, hopefully someday that gap will be reduced.

My first experience with an older woman was at age 17, when my best friend's aunt came to visit, and we met by chance at the entrance to the bathroom, there were no kisses, she simply touched me, and helped me touch her, I remember that she was 25 years older than me, and was so wet that I forgot the delight I enjoyed with my young girlfriend.

From then on, I had sex with my friend's aunt in various places, we enjoyed it, and sincerely my sexual appetite opened up, like none of the girls had. I encourage you to go out with the mature, is an unparalleled experience, it's simply a matter of breaking the paradigm and enjoy.
